COUNCIL HELD REGULAR MEETING ON TUESDAY

A regular meeting of the Strathmore Council was held on Tuesday night, Mayor Shrimpton presiding, and Councillors Miner, Quinn and Taylor present.

The last minutes were read and approved.

The secretary reported that Fred J. Anderson wished to renew lease on Second Street property from Oct. 1. The matter of the Snook account was discussed, and as Mr. Snook has ignored the communications of the secretary, he was instructed to take legal action.

T. M. Wears was in fine feather, reporting further receipts for the dog tax fund, and as far as it is known, not a single sinner has escaped.

A communication was received from Bremer, Hannah and Sanford, requesting that the Council agree to the transfer of control from the United Electric Co. to the Calgary Power Co., which is required by the Board of Utilities before they give their consent. This was recommended by the Council.

Rev. Phil Donkin and R. Page appeared as a deputation from the Cricket Club requesting that the Cricket Club be granted permission to play level and reseed about five acres in Lambert Park for the cricket pitch. Mr. Donkin came loaded with facts about Blue grass, Brown grass and commercialized, that made even such ardent grass devotees as John Taylor and George Quinn turn green with envy. He pictured the dangers to the cricketers of having to play on rough grounds until the Mayor and Harry Miner could visualize almost each and every player being carried away in an ambulance to the hospital. The victory was complete, and every man on the Board was anxious to grant the required permission. The Kenna Reeve was highly elated and expressed the heartfelt thanks of he and his supporters, Mr. R. Page.

A communication was received from the School Board regarding changing the corner on Railway Avenue at the school, creating a curve for safety, similar to the one on Balley Boulevard. The matter was left over for further consideration owing to the heavy expenditure that has been necessary on the roads this year.

The matter of road signs, showing to motorists the speed limit, was referred to Council for consideration.

The application of a restaurant license for Geo. E. Koch was recommended.

Current accounts totalling about sixty dollars were referred to the Finance Committee for payment.

At the close of the session the Mayor discovered that he had three or more perfectly good cigarettes in his possession than if Councillor Bailey had been able to see them.

COUNCIL ACCEPTS NEW ELECTRICAL CONTRACT

The Strathmore Council in session on Tuesday evening confirmed the new electrical contract negotiated by Mayor Shrimpton with the United Electric and Engineering Co., Ltd., which has been absorbed by the Calgary Power Co. Ltd., availing the sanction of the Utilities Board at $24 month. The power is now received from the Hydro plants at Kamanka and is part of the same system that supplies the City of Calgary.

The new schedule shows a substantial reduction to all consumers, but especially to the larger consumers, and brings the cost of the service on an equality with that paid but a few months ago in centres as large as Lethbridge.

The proposed rates for Strathmore are as follows:

Domestic Service is available, only for lighting, heating, cooking, domestic power, and the ordinary uses in houses and apartments used exclusively for residential purposes.

Service charge (fixed) $1.00 per month.

First 30 kilowatt hours per month 10c per k.w.h.

Next 20 kilowatt hours per month 10c per k.w.h.

All over 50 kilowatt hours per month 10c per k.w.h.

All over 100 kilowatt hours per month 10c per k.w.h.; provided Water Heater, not over 1 k.w. capacity and stove are connected.

Minimum charge, including service charge, $2.00 per month; $1.50 net per month.

Consumer's deposit, four dollars.

Reconnection charge, four dollars.

Discount—10% of the even dollars in the amount of the account, i.e. all accounts over $5.00, discount is 50c; $10.00 and over, discount is $1.00, etc.

With regard to your Street Lighting and Fire Pump. At present you pay a sum of $160.00 per month which covers 20 street lamps, each 150 candle power, and also permits the use of a 15 horse power motor at Fire Pump.

Our rate for Street Lighting is $3.00 per month for each 250 candle power lamp. We therefore propose installing a further 10 lamps, bringing the total to 50 at $3.00 per month. We, of course, will bring the whole of the lighting system up to date with 250 candle power lamps.

With reference to pumping for Fire Protection only, we would charge you $15.00 per month for this service as our power rates call for $1.00 per horsepower per month. We would not install a meter as we propose allowing you free of charge, all the energy required for fire fighting purposes.

Your total monthly bill for Street Lighting and Fire Protection would be $165.00 per month, and you will enjoy an additional 10 lamps, bringing the total to 50, which will be a considerable asset to Strathmore.

HERMAN PRACKER KILLED BY A TAXI DRIVER

On Thursday last the whole community was shocked when the news was received that Herman Pracker had been killed by a taxi driver at Calgary on Wednesday night, thus, by the twinkling of an eye, removing from the district, one of the most popular and successful citizens, creating a vacancy that will long linger in the minds of the citizens.

The late Mr. Pracker first came to Strathmore and secured employment with the Demonstration farm, and his work in connection was most successful. He later took up land for himself, and had made one of the outstanding successes in the Bow Valley as one visitor from England last year remarked that the Pracker Farm was one of the best travelling throughout Canada.

He is survived by his widow and three children, two daughters and one son. The late Mr. Pracker was born in Council Bluffs, Iowa, in 1886.

The funeral, which was attended by a very large number of people, was held on Monday morning to the Sacred Heart Church, where the Rev. Father McAdams, assisted by Rev. Father Kileen, of Rockford, conducted the services and burial.

The late Mr. Pracker was a most successful farmer and a general favorite with all classes of citizens, to whom he was at all times anxious to do them a favor, each and all of whom unite in extending their heartfelt sympathy to the widow and her children in their sudden bereavement.

Canada did not favor the St. Lawrence. The deep water canal across New York State would not only provide a shorter route for the Great Lakes, but at least one Mr. Fish said, Col. Edward C. Carrington, chairman of the Great Lakes-Hudson Waterways Association, New York, declared that the St. Lawrence River improvement was impractical as a means of affording ocean-going shipping with a connection to the Great Lakes.

C. S. Sims of the Delaware and Hudson Company, told the convention that he would consider the St. Lawrence River improvement as a means of affording ocean-going shipping with a connection to the Great Lakes.

THREE MAJORITY THE RHODES GOVERNMENT

HALIFAX, Oct. 2.—The Conservative government that in 1925 succeeded a Liberal regime of 43 years, received re-endorsement yesterday at the polls, but the majority of thirty-seven won by the party in the last election, was cut to three as the Liberal oppositionists registered a net gain of nineteen seats. At the time of dissolution thirty-seven Conservatives and three Liberals sat in the house of assembly, three Conservative seats being vacant.

The new assembly will be made up of twenty-three Conservatives and twenty Liberals.

A feature of yesterday's voting was the defeat of four members of the government and the reelection of four members of the Armstrong government, in power before the Conservative rise in 1915.

THE PAS HEARS

OF NEW LINE

THE PAS—The Canadian Pacific railway will be in this town next year, if rumors which are given great credence here are to be relied upon. It is well known, of course, that for several years the Canadian Pacific has contemplated an invasion of northern Manitoba. The line projected north to Winnipeg is considered as the most probable course of an extension to the north. From this point a line might be projected almost due east to The Pas, or northeast to the Flin Flon.

There are big developments going on in northern Saskatchewan in the mineral belt, which extends into that province from the western boundary of Manitoba and such a line could easily run feeders to tap this belt. It is believed, too, that the Canadian Pacific feels it should be represented in Fort Churchill and while a line coming through Winnipeg and projected towards the Hudson Bay port would not serve the Manitoba field to any extent it would create an undoubted short route for Saskatchewan and Alberta grain to be shipped by steamer from Hudson Bay to European markets.

People here who have studied the situation suggest that another Canadian Pacific line may easily be projected into the northern country on the west side of Lake Winnipeg, crossing over the lake at the Narrows and then continuing on the eastern side, tapping the mining district by feeders and continuing northward to Hudson Bay.

SPORT NOTES

SANDE CHECKS OUT AS A JOCKEY

Orcold green collar, cuffs and cap. These are the racing colors of Earl Sande, owner and trainer. With seven horses, all of them two year old fillies, Sande, who for nearly eleven years has been the kingly jockey of the United States, made his debut as an owner at Aqueduct, Long Island, recently.

Born in Groton, N.D., and raised on a ranch in Idaho near American Falls, Sande has spent most of his life riding horses. He is 29 now.

He began riding wild pinto ponies and ended up riding race horses. Sande can never get away from the race track. His whole life is wrapped up in it, and if he should fall as a trainer and owner he might be thrown back to the track again.

Sande had trouble making the weight during the past few years. He thinks his natural weight ought to be around 125 or 130 pounds, and it took a lot out of him to train down to 115 and 120 pounds.

Rode 942 Winners
It was Sande's ambition to ride 1000 winners. He stopped at 942. Since he began riding on the big time circuit in 1918, he had won 3528 mounts, 942 winners, 692 seconds, 520 thirds. He set an all time record in 1921 when he rode a winner every third time out. He had 240 mounts and 112 winners.

In 1925 Sande reached the peak of his career when he won the Kentucky Derby, the Withers, the Belmont, the Lawrence Realization and many other races on Zev. He also rode Zev to victory over Papyrus, ridden by Steve Donohue in the big international race. That year Zev won $27,000. In purses, a record that may stand for all time.

Sande believes Gray Lag was the greatest horse he ever rode. "He was an honest fighter," Sande said. "And mild as a lamb. He was a greater horse than Zev, I think."

Sande had ridden the winner of every important race except the Purity. He rode Curate in the Purity at Belmont during the fall season and finished last in a field of twenty-four. Sande couldn't win that race, it had him jinxed.

In eleven years Sande has amassed a considerable fortune for a jockey. His victories brought the men he rode for almost $1,000,000 and they rewarded him well.

Popular With Crowds

Sande was almost killed in 1924 at Saratoga when he was thrown from Spart and suffered a heavy shattered leg and a double fracture of the left leg above the knee. It was feared that it would be necessary to amputate the leg but Admiral Carr Gray son took charge of the case and nursed a record New York physical. Sande remained in the hospital until January, but he pulled through and returned to the track the next year. Sande was popular with the crowds but never too popular with the other jockeys. He was known as a rough-riding.

The little jockey's motto was "Here comes Sande. Better move over."

He had his jockey's license revoked by the Maryland Racing Board last fall, for rough riding, but was later reinstated. It so happened it wasn't Sande's fault that time, but Chick Lang's.

Among the great horses Sande had ridden besides Zev and Gray Lag, are Mad Play, Sir Barton, Chance Shot, Cudgel, Flying Ebony and Mad Hatter. He has ridden two Kentucky Derby winners, in 1925 on Zev and 1925 on Flying Ebony.

DEMPEY SAYS TUNNEY WILL FIGHT AGAIN

NEW YORK—Jack Sharkey will not be the next heavyweight champion of the world. Neither will Tommy Langhran nor George Godfrey nor yet Paulino, Risko and Tom Heoney. He will be a fellow by the name of Gene Tunney, and the reason I know so much about it is that good, old John Dempsey, the boy friend, broke down pitifully and confessed all.

It was John's way of saying that he didn't believe Brother Tunney meant to go in permanently for companionate pedestrianism, daily discussions about the absolute privacy of a public character and other simple pleasures of his current tour of European side streets, cleverly disguised a private citizen. Brother Tunney affirms that he has permanently withdrawn himself from circulation. The world, gallantly rally from the great calamity, is willing to believe him. Dempsey isn't.

"Just a hunch," he explained when I wanted to know his reasons, if any. "Just a hunch, but I think it's a good one. Put this down as a prediction from me: Tunney will be back in there fighting again, and of course, he will fight as the defending champion. I wouldn't surprise me at all if he came back before the end of the next out door season."

There are only two reasons why a fighter stops fighting. If he thinks he is still good, he fights. If he knows he isn't, he doesn't. Well, Tunney right now is at the top of his form. The other reason is money. If a fighter doesn't think he is going to get what he wants, he walks out of the show and waits for a better break. Tunney is worth more as an attraction now than if he hadn't retired. He seems also to disagree with the popular notion that, if they don't get the great man back in there within a year, they never will. Those who feel this way about it argue that Tunney, well aware of the disquieting effect a lay off has on speed, timing and style, doesn't want to give the public back to receive an exterior decoration. He could have no assurance to the contrary, it is contended, if he stayed longer than a year.

"Eyes watch," said John, in his best drawing room manner. "If he took any care of himself, he might be able to stay out three or four years, and still kick the best of the lot we have around now. Don't ask me who I think is the best. I don't know and neither does anybody else. All we know about them is that they are nothing much."

"How about yourself, if these eggs are so terrific?" The writer wished to know.

"That's different. I fought two or three fights too many," Tunney hasn't.

Being a perfect gentleman in spite of my receding curls, I retraced from asking whether John's doubt about Brother Tunney's future activities had anything to do with his own. Declaring for a life of ease and retirement. They do say, you know, that John retired last winter because Tunney didn't.

NAMAKA

The Edmonton Camnaught Tennis club recently finished a most successful tournament. This tournament is held in the fall of each year and this year's entry list was exceptionally large, including 122 entries, representing over 60 per cent of the club members. The auctioneer, who is in charge of the tournament, has been very successful in getting the spirit of friendly competition shown in the matches. The first cup representing the club championship in the men's open singles was won by Harry C. Baker, of Namaka.

Twins, a boy and a girl, were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Hubert by Dr. Griffin last week.

NOW THE QUESTION IS WHENCE CAME THE CABBAGE

OTTAWA, Ont.—While Ole Seebach, cook on the Norwegian freighter Soga, was cutting a cabbage for dinner in Montreal he found imbedded in it a Canadian soldier's button No. 8852.

The war record office here shows this belonged to Joseph Laiter, who collapsed in April, 1918, giving his address as 527 Lacombe street, Pittsburgh, Pa., and his next of kin as George Driscoll, 510 Fourth avenue, Pittsburgh. After demobilization Laiter called at the militia department and received his service medals. His present whereabouts is unknown.

BUSINESS MEN ARE

YOUR PARTNERS

R. W. Angus, vice-president of the Chatham (Ontario) Daily News, says: "That your home merchant is a partner with you in building up the social and business life of your community. It is worth thought, for it places buying in a new light."

If you put out a grocery store, would you send out of town for the food that appears on your table?

You may not own a grocery store, but you are part owner of a town which represents a business that has to be kept going. Your partners are your grocer, your hardware man, your dry goods man, every merchant and citizen of the community.

You derive dividends from that business—such as educational facilities, fire protection, police protection—all the advantages that a modern town supplies.

The capital you invest is repaid by the taxes you pay. If the business is not run upon a sound financial basis you increase your capital investment by paying more taxes.

The best way to keep taxes down is to promote local prosperity through cooperation with your partners in that civic business. If you buy out of town the local merchant has greater difficulty in making his private business pay, and he has more trouble in meeting his taxes. When he fails to pay the other partners in the civic business have to make up the deficit—You pay more taxes.

So, through buying at home, you are helping to reduce your own taxes. If you never stopped to think of it, do so now.

DRIVING SIMPLIFIED WITH CLUTCHLESS CAR

LONDON—"A revolution in motor driving is indicated by the clutchless, gearless device invented by J. S. Robertson," says the Daily Telegraph. With it motor driving is reduced to mere steering and braking, making driving the simplest task.

The right engine ratio according to speed is automatically selected as the driver opens or closes the throttle by an accelerator pedal.

W. D. Fisher, formerly of Gatenby & Fisher, is located at Niagara Falls, Ontario, and has been enjoying himself in the Niagara Peninsula, and visited the big Toronto exhibition, which he enjoyed very much, and found it most interesting. He still has a soft spot in his heart for the west, and is much interested in the big crop reports.

The Rally Service held Sunday morning Mass in the United Church, was most interesting and fairly well attended. The Junior Choir performed their part most creditably, and the duty by Alice Garrett and Douglas Irvine was very pleasing. The little girls sang under the guidance of Miss Folk.

A very beautiful solo was given by Douglas Irvine by Miss Folk. Mr. Wilkinson gave an interesting address based on the topic "The Peace Maker". Mr. Wilkinson spoke of the benefits of peace, both among individuals, communities and nations in contrast to the atrocities of war among nations, or lack of harmony any place. An interesting anecdote explaining the picture "The Christ of the Andes" was told by the speaker.

Bert Brerwell, of Rockyford, was in town on Monday. When Constable Harrison was in sight he behaved perfectly.

Ernie Wright has joined the Seal Walton Club, and made his debut at Carleton last Sunday, accompanying Jim Moran and Alex Gray. That he is a most promising recruit is vouched for in his first report to his father, Oliver Wright, when he stated there were so many fish that he walked across the river on their backs. When he has had half as much experience as Jim Moran, he will be able to tell a real one.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keeling will be sorry to learn that they had to take their son Billy to Calgary on Wednesday night, to be operated on for appendicitis, and hope for his speedy recovery.

Local school teachers are chafing under the "one day a week" rule handed them from the principal's office. Furthermore, they can't dance. Week end out of town are discouraged. Card playing is frowned upon. Card riding is discouraged. With only 36 hours allowed for the entire school year, many are reported "dated up" until June. We forgot to state that this does not refer to Strathmore but to a town in Oklahoma. Further, Mr. Principal Crowther knows that his staff does not require any such thing as the regulars, and the examination results are also further proof—in the words of Mayor Shrimpton, "you bet your life".

Some few weeks ago Hughes Motors and White's Garage experimented with Second Street in front of their premises. So satisfactory has this been in keeping down the dust and improving the street that T. E. Wright has duplicated the work in front of his store. It is hoped that each business man on the street will follow these good examples, and that A. D. Shrimpton, might get on the right side of Mayor Shrimpton and the Councilors, and induce them to do likewise upon property owned by the town. Nice work, let's go. Strathmore is getting more like New York every day.

ROSEBUD

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Vigar and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Buttman, of Rosebud, Alta., wish to thank all their friends who so kindly assisted in their recent sad bereavement.

Rev. Mr. Powell delivered a most interesting sermon at the Rosebud United Church on Sunday evening, to a large congregation. After the service a meeting was held to discuss the problem of a resident minister. There being no available man now at home at present, it was decided to have Mr. Powell send a supply once a month on the last Sunday of the month. To secure a loan to build a manse, something must be paid on the church debt first, therefore a drive is being contemplated.

At the last report Mrs. F. W. Schultz is much more comfortable than she has been for a long time. She is again at her home here.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. VIGAR

A well-known old timer of the Rosebud district has passed away, in the person of Mr. Daniel Vigar. He had been ailing for some time, and the end came peacefully on Sept. 24th. Eighty-two years ago Mr. Vigar was born in the south of England, and thirty-eight years ago, he came to Canada and settled in Rosebud, where he has resided ever since. He was a highly respected citizen, and well liked by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn his loss, three daughters: Mrs. Matthews, of London, England; Mrs. M. E. Wishart, of Calgary; and Mrs. Thos. Buttman, with whom he lived and who looked after him with devoted care until his removal to the hospital. He also leaves four sons: Fred Vigar, of London, England; Frank and Cecil, of Vancouver, B.C.; and Alfred of Rosebud.

There are also thirteen grand children, and about twenty-five great grandchildren.

The first part of the funeral service was held in the United Church of

The service at the graveside was conducted by the Rev. H. I. Nobbs, of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Drumheller. The pall bearers were Messrs Jack Sangster, John Evans, John Martin, Homer Jones, H. Summers and R. Brunner.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful, and showed in what high esteem Mr. Vigar was held. Mrs. Ruppe was elected President at the annual meeting of the Ladies Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. Black on September 27th. The Club decided to send a box of worn clothing and toys to the Red Cross Society in a month's time. If anyone wishes to help, would they kindly leave donations at Pool's Hardware Store. The school teachers of the town were given a welcome during the social hour.

CARSELAND

The sudden death of A. E. Anderson, well-known farmer at Carseland, came as a great shock to his many friends, both of the north and south side of the river. The late Mr. Anderson was a genial good fellow to everyone who came in contact with him, either in business or pleasure dealings. Some feel as if they had lost an older brother in not seeing his familiar face in our midst. The funeral took place from the Shaver Parlors to Mountain View Cemetery. Among those who were present and acted as pall bearers were Harry Groves Sr., Oscar Moorehouse, Chas. Cote, Ted Barlow, Alfred Anderson, D. Woodrow, Andrew Hildahl, A. Sibley and his brother acted as chief mourners. There was a very large display of floral tokens, from the U.F.A., P. B. Club, private families, and the following friends, who sent several floral wreaths under the heading of friends in Carseland: Les Fields, R. Woodrow, Thos. Hesteth, Alfred Anderson, J. G. Forbes, N. WHEAT POOL NEWS BULLETIN

During the month of August, 1928, a total of 3,551 contracts were received in head office. This number of contracts involved a total of 473,794 acres of wheat or an average for 27 working days during this period of 148 contracts and 15,445 acres per day. Since the issuing of the Second Series contract 10,524 new members have been added to the association. Deliveries to Alberta Pool elevators reached a high water mark on September 24th when over one million bushels of grain were reported.

British Columbia wheat growers are joining the Alberta Wheat Pool. They find it much to their advantage to do so.

Leighton McCarthy, K.C., a Toronto lawyer and financier, said in a speech delivered in Calgary that the Wheat Pool was Canada's largest commercial undertaking, and remarked that western farmers appear to be realizing the advantages of close organization.

The six leading Pool elevators in the matter of handlings from the 1927 crop are:

	Bushels
Vulcan	453,945
Carmanagan	404,231
Warner	376,289
Coudale	375,745
Provost	372,276
Hindosa	330,884

By the end of the present year the total number of Alberta Pool elevators will be 307, or an addition of 147 houses during the year.

DENVER, COLO., BOOSTS MUCH USED SAUBLE

DENVER, Colo.—A diamond pin, 32 years old, owned by Mrs. Eugene S. Cosad, has adorned the dress of 22 brides in Denver weddings and is believed to have a record for such ornamentation.

The pin has been worn by brides of the immediate family and friends of Mrs. Cosad, Denver society matron. Mrs. Cosad said the pin probably will be used for the 100th time by brides in Denver's social set before the end of the summer.

MOTHER-IN-LAW IS BUID FOR LODGING

DENVER—Mothers-in-law have been the victims of much jesting, but all precedent was broken here recently when Dr. Thern Ora Morris, chief medical adviser for the United States Veterans Bureau in Denver and Mrs. Rachel A. Cottingham, his mother-in-law, for $3,590 for back board and lodging.

BREWING IS AN IMPORTANT INDUSTRY IN ALBERTA

Few citizens give thought to what the Brewing Industry means to Alberta as an industry, yet it is an important factor in the Industrial life of the Province.

It is not necessary to emphasize the millions of dollars invested in the industry. The point that should not be lost sight of is that there are hundreds of men steadily employed throughout the year in the brewing, storing and transporting of the products of the five great breweries of Alberta.

There is no industry in Alberta that spends more of its total income right in this Province than does the Brewing Industry.

HEARD ON THE STREET

"Ah! these be cruel 'ard times for the workin' man."
"What's the matter now, another strike coming?"
"No such luck, sir! The bloomers masters have given in, and we've got to start work again Monday morning!"

"The difference between a flapper and a race horse is very pronounced nowadays," says Frank Clutchie, "but either may win by a neck."

At the grave of the departed, the old dinky pastor stood, hat in hand. Looking into the abyss, he delivered the funeral oration.

"Samuel Johnson," he said, sorrowfully, "you is gone, An' we hope you has gone where we 'specks you ain't."

Mother: "If you wanted to go fishin' why didn't you come and ask me first?"
Johnny: "Because I wanted to go fishin'."

Magistrate: "Well, suppose he was fighting with the poundkeeper—that doesn't prove the prisoner was drunk, does it?"
Witness: "No, of course not. But, you see, your worship, the poundkeeper wasn't there!"

A young bride had the habit of speaking of her husband as peaches and cream cake, so many layers high, according to how much she appreciated him at the time.

One morning her mother said to her, "Well, how is Bill this morning?"
Peaches and Cream Cake three layers high?
"No."
"Four?"
"No."
"Five?"
"No."
"Well, what is it?" asked the mother.
"Dog biscuit," snapped the bride.

Farmer: "Where are my horses? Didn't I tell you to watch them while I went into the store?"

Watchful Sam: "I did watch 'em. They went down past deers' feed rail, and when they got out on the main road where it was good runnin' they made so much dust I couldn't see 'em any more."

Two Negroes stood on the fringe of a crowd where a politician was making a speech. "Who am dat man, Sam?" asked one.

"Ah don't know what his name is," Sam replied, "but he sure do recommend hisself most highly."

"Do you think clothes make the man?"
"Well, I must admit I owe a lot to my tailor."

Mabel: "How is your husband getting on with golf?"
Alice: "Oh, very well, indeed. The children are allowed to watch him now."

She: "So you think this new hat is becoming as well as expensive?"
He: "Yes, dear, it covers too much of your lovely face."

She: "Well—perhaps I'd better return it."

"Would you consider their marriage a success?"
"Absolutely! The ceremony was televisualized, radio-cast, photographed for the movies, and recorded for a talking machine company! What more could you ask?"

"Be careful if you're playing against that new lawyer chap," warned the golf club's oldest player. "Yesterday I asked him if I should use a maulie or niblick, and today I've a bill for two dollars."

Maoriist (whose car refuses to lodge an inch): "Anyhow, Gene drives, who told it to me, told the truth about it."

Wife: "Why? What did he say?"
Motorist: "He said, 'Drive it carefully for the first 500 miles—after that it won't matter.'"

Waitress: "Wasn't your egg cooked long enough?"
Customer: "Yes, but not soon enough."

Friend: "Tell me your secret of success. How have you obtained so many patrons in such a short time?"
Dry Goods Merchant: "I got a parrot and trained it to cry out, 'Oh! isn't she lovely!' every time a lady entered the store."

Lady in Department Store: "May I see some trunks, please?"
Luggage Salesman: "Do you prefer the plain ones, madam, or shall I show you some of our new metal-trimmed, indestructible, camp or running-board type?"

Lady: "Just plain ones, I guess. My husband wants to wear them in swimming."

A story is told of the late Dr. Burns, Bishop of Oxford. It was being explained to a woman that:

"If you lack a horse at 10 to 1 with a pound, and it wins, you get £10; and if you back it at 20 to 1, you get £20."

"Yes," she replied, "I understand; but if you back it at a quarter to one, what happens?"

The husband, who was obliged to remain in town owing to the pressure of urgent business, was seeing his wife off at the railway station for a few days' holiday.

"Molly dear," he said considerably, "hadn't you better take a book or two with you—some fiction to while away the time?"

His wife looked at him with the nearest suspicion of a smile.

"Oh, no, George dear," she said sweetly, "there's no need of that. You'll be writing to me, won't you?"

In the corner of an old neglected English churchyard the following epitaph was found on a moss-covered weather-beaten old grave-stone:

Sacred to the memory of Eben Harvey, who departed this life suddenly and unexpectedly by a cow kicking him on the 18th of September, 1823.

"Well done, then good and faithful servant."

"I am afraid, doctor," said a woman to her physician, "that my husband has some terrible mental affliction. Sometimes I talk to him for hours and then discover that he literally hasn't heard a word I said."

"That isn't an affliction," was the reply; "that's a divine gift."

The cuffed lady gave her name, her address and her age; and then the clerk or magistrate asked this question:

"What party do you affiliate with?"

"Den you just scratch my name often de books. Ef I got to tell dat party's name, ah don't vote, dat all. Why, he ain't got his divorce yet."

Landlady: "And what's wrong now?"

Youthful Lodger: "I just wanted to say that I think you get too much mileage out of this roller-towel."

Peter was playing at Johnny's house. When it was time to go home it started to rain. Mrs. White, however, gave Peter Johnny's raincoat and galoshes.

"Don't talk so much trouble, Mrs. White," said Peter politely.

"I'm sure your mother would do as much for Johnny," she replied.

"My mother would do more," said Peter. "She'd ask Johnny to stay for supper."

Wife: "Oh, I do want to sing so badly."
Hubby: "Cheer up, my dear—you do."

She: "If I posted a letter addressed to the sweetest girl in America, I wonder whom they'd deliver it to?"

He (naively): "They'll probably return it to the sender."

A doctor who had been called in to see a patient strongly impressed upon him the necessity of drinking hot water with his whisky.

He said, "you must not take it all." "But how shall I get the hot water?" plaintively inquired the patient. "My wife won't let me have it for the whisky."

"Well, tell her you want to shave," answered the doctor, as he took his departure.

The next day the doctor called again, and when the wife opened the door he asked how the patient was.

"I'm awfully worried, doctor," was the reply. "I'm afraid he's gone raving mad! He shaves every ten minutes."

A Scotsman fell into his well. His wife heard his yells and ran to his rescue.

"I'll ring the big bell and bring the hired men from the fields," she cried.

"What time is it?" asked the farmer with a shiver as he beat the cold water.

"About eleven o'clock."

"Wait till lunch time, I'll try to keep on top till then."

Every high school has its quota of so-called "duds" pupils who do not measure up to the standard set for high school accomplishment. In most cases one or two causes seem to be active; either the student is not interested in the sort of work that the high school offers him, or he lacks the necessary mental equipment. It is not often that a pupil is found who is constitutionally lazy; many children who appear to be lazy could be induced to work if the right stimulus were found or if they were given work that they had the ability to do.

It is folly for the teacher to tell an uninterested or incapable child that he is a "worthless good-for-nothing"; usually it is not true. On the other hand it is uneconomical administration for school boards to allow the schools to be cluttered up with uninterested and incapable children. And parents who insist on such children "getting an education" very often have a mistaken idea of the meaning of the word education.

The trouble at the present time seems to lie, not so much in the lack of facilities for training children who will not or can not do justice to the ample instruction, as in the lack of facilities for advising pupils as the type of training suitable to their needs and capabilities.

With a view to giving trials in Alberta to the ways in which children are given vocational advice in the principal Canadian centres of education, and as a preliminary to a more vigorous campaign for Vocational Guidance in schools, the Research Committee of the Alberta Teachers' Alliance has undertaken to devote considerable attention to securing information.

D. I. Sheriffe, M. A., of Edmonton, is the Chairman of the sub-committee on Vocational Guidance.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT SHOULD ACT PROMPTLY

At Calgary, a coroner's jury, composed of six full grown adults, and, as far as it is known, perfectly sane, after an hour's deliberation, have produced the following remarkable verdict in connection with the death of the late Herman Praker: "that Herman Praker came to his death by being unintentionally struck by a motor car driven by Donald Field."

Apparently this chosen jury is selling that needed any recommendation for the further protection of the public, for any condemnation of the act of Donald Field, who, having destroyed the life of one of our best citizens, calmly drove away to his home and dropped off to sleep, leaving a victim lying dead on the public highway.

The act of this man is one of the most outrageous exhibitions of complete indifference to the rights of the public.

Whether a man is really intoxicated or not is often a difficult matter to clearly establish, but according to the evidence of Dr. Selby, a reputable physician, Donald Field had been drinking, which was confirmed by Dr. Stewart, who, however, would not go so far as to say that he was under the influence of liquor. Two witnesses, Buckley and Van's, admitted that they had been drinking with Field but were not drunk, just "feeling good." Mrs. Alexander testified that beer had been served at supper, while the manager of the Taxi Co., by whom Field was employed, testified that Field was not under the influence of liquor.

Sgt. George Miller testified as to the arrest of Field, whom he had found asleep in bed. He had been difficult to awaken, and while being shaken into consciousness he had said "Keep quiet—say nothing about it." Field resisted them in a half-awake condition. When told that he was wanted in connection with the accident, Field had asked: "What accident?"

Surely this is a case that warrants the Attorney General's Department making a thorough investigation and following same, put into practice some stringent regulations in connection with motor drivers' licenses.

Much has been said about inexperienced drivers, but if records were kept of the accidents, it would be seen that the inexperienced and novice class are safe. The one class that have caused the most serious accidents, but drivers of the type of Field, who are so absolutely indifferent to the rights of others, that after killing his men (whether drunk or sober), he coolly retreats to his home and falls asleep so soundly that the policeman found it difficult to awaken him.

Mr. Lyman, as Attorney General of this province, and John G. Buckley, M.L.A., as representative of this riding, it is up to you to get busy, and get busy at once.

AN AMAZING GROWTH OF CANADIAN PROSPERITY

To Hon. R. B. Bennett, who holds that Canada is in a bad way and liable to go much worse, and to the Toronto Mail and Empire, which declares that there is something defective about the apparently fortunate position of the country, we commend the view of the Ottawa Journal, a Conservative newspaper, which recognizes and rejoices in the prosperity which Canada is now enjoying.

"Hardly a day now but something reveals an amazing growth of prosperity," remarks the Journal. "One day comes word of promise of the greatest Western harvest in years, another brings figures of increasing bank deposits, and still another of buoyant revenues and growing production and trade. The latest evidence of this astonishing expansion is the growth of building permits." It then proceeds:

"The period between 1900 and 1913 has been called Canada's 'golden era.' But Canada's prosperity and growth in those years was as nothing in comparison with our rate of progress now. Between 1900 and 1914 development of waterpower, for example, was comparatively trivial. Our great pulp and paper industry was but in its infancy; our mines were undeveloped and yielding little more than a bag of steel in comparison with today. In all of these fields, since 1920, growth has been marvelous. Our forests, today, are producing wealth beyond anything we dreamed of; our mines are among the richest in the world; power is our second greatest industry; our trade, railway traffic, bank deposits, revenues, insurance policies—every thing that denotes expansion and prosperity, both for the State and the individual—have grown with bewildering speed."

And the end is not yet, according to the Ottawa newspaper, "which sees in the present crop prospects in the West a great stimulus to the industry and business throughout the country. In conclusion, therefore, it says:

"Truly, this country has much for which to be thankful. We often grumble and complain, and we magnify our problems. Yet the fact is that this land is a blessed one, a land of opportunity for the humblest and a shelter for the weakest; and instead of complaining we should daily thank Providence for the blessings showered upon us."

The Ottawa Journal states the situation as it exists and it is a happier one than we have seen for many years. Meantime, certain newspapers, by their various ways, endeavoring to manufacture gloom. The Toronto Mail and Empire, for instance, follows up Mr. Bennett's remarks about Canada's loss of population to the United States and it says:

"Canada cannot be said to be in the way of national prosperity, however abundant the output of her industry might be, if at the same time, her population remains stationary for years. Much less can she be credited with national prosperity while her population is steadily dwindling."

The truth is that Canada's population has not remained stationary and is no dwindling. It is increasing during the present year to the extent of the natural increase in population, plus probably 135,000, representing the excess of immigration over emigration.

This dispense of one of the excuses for denying the prosperity of the country, and the others are of the same quality. Nevertheless the position must be maintained, of course, that the present condition and outlook of the Dominion urgently demand a change in the guidance of its affairs.

SOLDIER SUES GOVT.

VANCOUVER, B.C.—Whether a soldier has the right of action against the department of militia and defence for his pay is the point at issue in a case being heard here. John William Cooke, who was formerly with the 67th Battalion, C.E.F., is claiming from the government $3,325, pay due him for the time he was listed as a deserter. Cooke claims that during this period mentioned he was a prisoner in a German camp. Mr. Justice Austin, in exchange court here Monday reserved judgment.

Something for Nothing

"Something for nothing" runs an old saying, "is worth all it costs". And this, we are afraid, is what usually happens when some member of the family is made administrator of the estate, with the idea that the administrator will serve for nothing.

We solicit your interviews and correspondence on this vital subject.

TWENTY PERSONS CAN SLEEP IN NITECOACH BUS

LOS ANGELES—Automobiles do lux with sleeping, eating and other comforts and accommodations in assured tourists in a recent development in motorbus building, the "Nite Coach," which has been exhibited on the Pacific Southwest Exposition in Long Beach, Calif., and bids fair to increase long distance motor stage travel.

This remarkable car resembles at first glance an overturned yacht with a glass bottom and steel hull. It is gracefully streamlined and equipped with port holes as well as observation windows. There is no hood, as on the ordinary motorbus, the portion of the body containing the driver's compartment being built directly over the motor.

The big surprise, however, is found in the discovery that this coach, not appreciably larger than other motorbuses, has sleeping room for 25 adults with comfortable seating space for day travel as well.

The entrance is an arched doorway near the front of the car, opening immediately on a compact kitchen which is a part of the regular equipment. A high-roofed center aisle runs the length of the car, on either side of which are arranged the compartments.

Everything for Comfort. Where so many passengers can find seating and sleeping accommodations is cleared up when the car is examined. By an ingenious arrangement, the upper and lower compartments are made to interlock, increasing the height of the car to only a few inches above the ordinary single-deck stage. The center aisle is located halfway between the floors of upper and lower decks, so that it is but a short step down or up to either level.

In each compartment there is a built-in thermos jug of ice water and a gleaming nickel wash basin with running water. Two sliding drawers measuring 14 by 17 inches are for clothing and personal effects. There is space where a suitcase may be stored, making it completely accessible at all times. It is almost impossible, under the best of conditions, to imagine where all this space in each compartment can be.

BETTER THAN EXPECTED

Clarebush Local Press: One of the best gloom-chasers of the week is the threshing returns. In many instances the yield is much higher than anticipated, and the grade is holding up well. A Dixon on 27 acres, east of Pelly, threshed a yield of 52 bushels per acre. Wm. Hoffman is delivering No. 1 wheat to the Independent Grain Co. from his summerfall, and his yield is more than 40 bushels per acre. Leo Bohod's wheat on a 25-acre patch run 42 bushels per acre. Daren brothers completed threshing an 82-acre patch that yielded 42 bushels per acre. The grade looks a good No. 2, perhaps stretching to a No. 1 in ear-look later. Walter Jones has threshed a 40-acre field of wheat for Geo. Beattie that yielded 59 bushels per acre.

pulls along a fabric basket, running on rollers just under the shopper's arm. One of these baskets, lives pointed out, can carry much more than a husband, and is much handier.
After attaching the basket, the shopper puts the car into low gear. The automobile runs on a concrete driveway, just wide enough for a car, and a cement runway keeps it in line. On the shopper's left are revolving shelves of canned goods and staples on one side and mainly fresh fruit and vegetables on the other. The car at the rear of the store is sharp, so a turntable is provided upon which the car is driven and steered by machinery controlled by an attendant. One pays at the end of the route, just as in any other service-station grocery.
Attendants see that the shelves are replenished and that customers' wants are supplied. If the shopper does not care to drive, she may walk in by another entrance and help herself from shelves between the revolving ones.
